

FIRST HAWAIIAN CENTER HONOLULU, HAWAII

Consolidated Engineering Laboratories provided materials testing and special inspection services for this prestigious 28-story office building. This eminent project included a multi-level underground parking garage. Our scope of services included inspection of cathodic protection, rock anchors, waterproofing, reinforced concrete, structural steel (at San Bernardino Steel), fireproofing and masonry.

Client: The Myers Corporation
Bruce Gleissner – (808) 535-3700

Architect: Kohn, Pedercon and Fox – (212) 977-6500

Structural Engineer: Martin, Bravo and Chalk
Gary Chalk – (808) 521-4513

General Contractor: Fletcher Pacific Construction – (808) 533-5000

Duration: 1991 – 1995

Construction Costs: $175 Million

CEL Fees: $240 Thousand

