

MONTEREY BAY AQUARIUM MONTEREY, CALIFORNIA

Consolidated Engineering Laboratories (CEL) provided testing and inspection services for the remodeling and improvement to the Aquarium entranceway. The improvement consisted of structural steel framing, an overhead walkway, and the expansion of adjacent rooms at the entranceway. CEL's geotechnical staff was utilized to provide recommendations to improve existing steel conditions. CEL performed concrete, structural steel shop and field welding, and fireproofing inspection and testing services.

Client: Monterey Bay Aquarium
Marty Manson – (831) 648-4889

Architect: Esherick, Homsey, Dodge & Davis – (415) 285-9193

Structural Engineer: Rutherford + Chekene – (510) 740-3200

General Contractor: D. J. Amoroso – (650) 654-1900

Duration: 2003 – Ongoing

Construction Costs: $7 Million

CEL Fees: $65 Thousand to-date

