

STOCKTON ARENA STOCKTON EVENTS CENTER STOCKTON, CALIFORNIA

Consolidated Engineering Laboratories provided materials testing and special inspection services for the new Stockton Arena. The arena will serve as the home for an ECHL minor league hockey, AF2 arena football and indoor soccer teams. The arena is expected to include 10,000 seats, 24 suites, 400 club seats, 5,000 sf of meeting rooms, administrative offices for all the sports teams and the arena operations and management staff.

CEL's scopes of service provided were: Batch plant inspection, Concrete placement and sampling, reinforcing steel, masonry placement and sampling, shotcrete, shop and field welding, shop material identification, high strength bolting, and epoxy grouted dowels inspection and testing.

Client: City of Stockton
Jay Coffey – (209) 462-0921

Architect: 360 CA Schrock
Steve King – (816) 531-3003

Structural Engineer: Magnusson Kelmenic Associates
Brian Dickson – (206) 292-1200

General Contractor: Swinerton Builders
Jules Rangel – (209) 944-9565

Duration: August 2004 – November 2005

Construction Costs: $65 Million

CEL Fees: $215 Thousand

